

CARDIOVASCULAR & DIABETES MEDICINE

SEMINAR SERIES 2011-12

SEMESTER 2

All seminars are held at 4pm in the Wolfson Lecture Theatre, Level 5,
Ninewells Medical School

Date	Speaker	Title	Host
Monday 16 th January	Professor Mark Kearney (University of Leeds)	Insulin resistance, the endothelium and atherosclerosis	Dr Will Fuller
Monday 6 th February	Dr Yoon Loke (University of East Anglia)	Systematic Reviews of Adverse Effects: Why Bother?	Professor Tom MacDonald
Monday 20 th February	Dr Simon Schenk (University of California at San Diego)	SIRT1 (sometimes) regulates skeletal muscle metabolism: Insights from novel mouse models	Dr Lee Hamilton
Monday 27 th February	Professor Mark Caulfield (William Harvey Research Institute)	Genes for blood pressure - potential for the clinic?	Professor John Connell
Monday 12 th March	Professor Arduino Mangoni (University of Aberdeen)	Non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs and cardiovascular toxicity: moving beyond cyclooxygenase selectivity	Professor Marion McMurdo
Monday 16 th April	Professor Susan Wong (University of Cardiff)	Pathogenesis of type 1 diabetes - some insights from the NOD mouse	Dr Rory McCrimmon
Monday 30 th April	Dr John Overington (European Bioinformatics Institute)	Polypharmacology and Drug Safety - A Data Driven Analysis	Professor Colin Palmer
Monday 7 th May	Professor Chim Lang (University of Dundee)	Mending a Broken Heart The Dundee Way	Dr Will Fuller
Monday 21 th May	Dr Anna Gloyn (University of Oxford)	Genetics versus Epidemiology: Evidence for paradoxical pleiotropy in metabolism from human genetics	Dr Ewan Pearson
Monday 28 th May	Professor Simon Capewell (University of Liverpool)	Cardiovascular disease prevention - can we shape the future?	Professor Allan Struthers
Monday 18 th June	Professor Jeremy Tavaré (University of Bristol)	Investigating the Akt-GSK3 axis in lung cancer and glioma	Dr Calum Sutherland
Monday 25 th June	Professor Mike Shattock	Autonomic Conflict: a different way	Dr Will Fuller