Video - 4.11 Examining impact and change

It's always great to see how your work creates a difference in the world. Impact and change are sometimes difficult to see or quantify. In this video, Uta Wehn from GroundTruth2.0 has shared with us some of the key reasons for capturing impact and change. We also heard about a Community of Practice set up by WeObserve in this area.

The Communities of Practice are open to everyone. You can learn more about them at the WeObserve website, and if you are interested in taking part, you can sign up here!
